Please do not leave a message on the school answer machine as this may not be collected until after the start of your examination. Please speak directly with reception or email exams@southchurchschool.com

You must provide the Exams Office with a note from your doctor detailing the reason for non-attendance as there may be an opportunity to apply for special consideration to the exam board. It may be possible for the exam board to consider all marks achieved and will sometimes enable them to adjust the mark and grade accordingly.

- You will be given a few minutes to compose yourself and get ready to start
- The amount of time lost will be added on to your exam time. The new finish time will be clearly written on the board at the front of the room

If an evacuation is necessary:

- The invigilator will ask you to line up in complete silence and leave the exam venue, you must not communicate with any candidate during the evacuation as this may compromise the exam security and will mean that the exam may have to be abandoned, or you will be disqualified from the exam due to malpractice.
- Once you have returned to the exam room your new finish time will be calculated and you will be given time to compose yourself before the exam is re-started.
